

Rummel valedictorian to attend U.S. Naval Academy

The 44th graduation class at Archbishop Rummel High School received diplomas following a Baccalaureate Mass May 17 at the Pontchartrain Center.

The diplomas were presented by Thomas Moran, principal, and the graduates were congratulated by Michael Begg, president.

Father Pat Wattigny, school chaplain, celebrated the Graduation Mass for 265 members of Archbishop Rummel's Class of 2009 and their guests.

Named valedictorian for the commencement exercises was Christopher M. Kliebert, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kliebert of Metairie. He attended St. Angela Merici School before beginning his career at Archbishop Rummel.

While attending Archbishop Rummel, Kliebert was a member of the National Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta, Operation Headstart, Big Brothers, Ambassadors and the track team.

Kliebert has received an appointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., to study naval architecture and engineering.

The salutatorian was Luke E. Corass, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Corass of Metairie. He came to Archbishop Rummel from Our Lady of Divine Providence School and has been a member of the National Honor Society, Mu Alpha Theta, Campus Ministry, Operation Headstart, Key Club and the football team.

Corass will attend Louisiana Tech University next year to study engineering on a Presidential Scholarship.
