

A photograph of the St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans, Louisiana, featuring its iconic three spires and classical facade. The image is set against a blue sky with light rays emanating from the top center. The cathedral is surrounded by greenery and a paved walkway in the foreground.

300 YEARS

AS A NEW ORLEANS CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

On January 6, 2018 –
in honor of the Tricentennial of the City of New Orleans – the Clarion Herald, the official Catholic newspaper of the Archdiocese of New Orleans, will publish a keepsake issue entitled:

“River of Faith: 300 Years as a New Orleans Catholic Community.”

Publication Date: January 6, 2018

For more information on advertising or sponsorships please call

TODAY!

Contact Our Advertising and Marketing Director MJ Cahill

504.596.3034

mcahill@clarionherald.org

The logo for the Clarion Herald, featuring a stylized illustration of a cathedral spire to the left of the text. The text "CLARION HERALD" is in a bold, serif font, with "CLARION" on the top line and "HERALD" on the bottom line. Below the text, in a smaller font, is the tagline "Official Newspaper of the Archdiocese of New Orleans".

CLARION HERALD
Official Newspaper of the Archdiocese of New Orleans

RIVER OF FAITH

SPECIAL SPONSORSHIPS ALSO AVAILABLE FOR THIS KEEPSAKE SPECIAL SECTION!